Dear Parent, Guardians and Students,

As part of Sinton ISD's commitment to enable students' access for Dual-Credit courses for 2018-2019, we will pay 100% of the tuition, fees, books and transportation for Sinton High School students who enroll in dual credit courses.

Be advised that final class rank for seniors is calculated at the end of the third nine weeks. Midterm grades in the spring provided by Del Mar College data system will be used for this rank.

Criteria:

1. A student must meet the College requirement for admission.
2. Successfully attain a satisfactory score on ACT, SAT, or TSI Assessment.
3. Meningitis Vaccine – up to date.
4. Apply Texas completed

Obligations:

1. Students who do not complete a course and/or pass with a 70 or higher will be responsible for reimbursing the District for the full cost of the course including books and any other class specific items.
2. All students are required to conduct themselves by the Sinton Independent School District's Code of Conduct.
3. Students, who have three or more absences for any class and are forced to drop the course by Del Mar College, will be responsible for reimbursing the District for the full cost of the course.
4. According to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, Del Mar College has set limited rights for parents in order to safeguard student privacy both of access to student records and for the release of such record.
5. If a student fails a dual credit course, they can only take a course with an adjunct professor on SHS campus the following semester and must have recommendation from the online facilitator and/or adjunct professor.
6. A student who withdraws from Sinton ISD before the end of the semester will be responsible for reimbursing the District for the full cost of the course including books and any other class specific items.

Signing this letter serves as verification that you agree to the terms stated. (This document must be notarized.)

We encourage all interested students to participate in this opportunity to earn college credit. If you have any further questions, please contact our Counselors at 361-364-6659.
